SUMMARY OF MESSAGE

Tonight we are in the second week of our series "Stranger Things." Last week we talked about things being strange vs. certain. We told students that we could still believe even if we don't understand. This week we are going to focus more practically on these strange things. We are looking at a familiar narrative tonight of Jesus turning water into wine. From this strange scene in the Bible we are going to challenge students to trust God with some of the strange things He is asking you to do because stranger things may happen through you. We are going to end the night by challenging them to take on some of these "strange things" and see what "stranger things" God does through them.

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

1. What do you think about the strange stories we have been talking about?
2. What are some things we have challenged you to do at InsideOut that have seemed "strange?"
3. Do you believe that God wants to use you to do "strange things?"
 - If so what does that look like?
 - If not, why?
4. What are some strange things you can do for others that may bring about stranger things in your own life?
