SUMMARY OF MESSAGE

Our series Streaks continues tonight with the second part of InsideOut's mission statement. Last week, we encouraged students to keep their streaks alive by "loving God." This week, we're going to challenge them to live differently than the world. It's human to do whatever it takes to get what we want. In the race for popularity and status, we often try to lift ourselves up to gain recognition or fill a void inside of us. But God's design is for us to humble ourselves. When we do this, we'll find everything we're looking for and others will see it's possible to live differently.

QUESTIONS FOR SMALL GROUP

1. What are some differences between how God wants you to live and how culture wants you to live?
2. Why do you think it's so hard to humble yourself?
3. What would it look like for you to practically humble yourself?
4. How can we help you live different throughout the summer?
