SUMMARY OF MESSAGE

Tonight we are finishing our series “Before I Die.” Last week we heard a compelling message from the founder of Charity Water and challenged our students to “give away their age.” Basically we asked them to bring a dollar for every year they have been alive. Tonight we are going to talk about what it looks like for us to write a better story for our own lives. We want them to wrestle with the idea of how to leave a lasting impact after they are gone. We will look at Matthew 16 when Jesus challenges His disciples to find their life by losing it. Our goal is that students would be compelled to give control of their lives over to God and begin to write a better story.

QUESTIONS FOR SMALL GROUP

1. What do you want to be known for when you die?
2. What do you think people would say about you right now?
3. How does it make you feel when we hear that Jesus says we need to “lose our lives?”
4. How can we as a group help you write a better story?
